4.0 – Impact Factor

4. International Journal of Exergy

A decision was made by the COBEM 2025 Chair not to submit articles to IJEx because the publisher demanded that the submission to the Special Issue should be for Open Access (OA), and the authors would have to pay a fee for publishing their papers.

5. RETERM – Thermal Engineering

Authors can submit freely...A total of 50 papers will be published.

Area: all renewable and nonrenewable energy related papers will be eligible for selection

RETERM is currently in process of indexation by SCOPUS

All articles will have an assigned DOI
